

International Conference:

Abraham Ibn Daud: History, Philosophy and Political Theology in Sepharad

9-10 March 2021

Virtual conference: <https://umurcia.zoom.us/j/99280223067>

Organization:

José Antonio Fernández López (Universidad de Murcia)

PROGRAM

9 March 2021

15:30-15:40. Greetings: José A. Fernández

Session I. Context, Studies and Perspectives on Ibn Daud

Introduction: Alfonso Galindo (Universidad de Murcia)

15:45-16:10

Resianne Fontaine (University of Amsterdam):

“The study of Abraham Ibn Daud in the past three decades:
What do we (not) know?”

16:10-16:35

Reimund Leicht (Hebrew University of Jerusalem):

“How to define Abraham Ibn Daud's place in medieval intellectual history?
Criteria for a historiographical assessment”

16:35-17:00

Katja Vehlow (Jewish Theological Seminary):

“The many audiences of Ibn Daud's historical writings”

17:00-17:25

José Luis Villacañas (Universidad Complutense de Madrid):

“El contexto histórico de Ibn Daud: Sefarad: de minoría andalusí
a minoría hispana”

10 March 2021

Session II. Ibn Daud's Philosophy

15: 30. Introduction: José A. Fernández /Alfonso Galindo

15:45-16:10

Amira Eran (Levinsky College Tel Aviv):

“Ibn Daud's Critic of Ibn Gabirol and Gundissalinus' Concept of Prime Matter”

16:10-16:35

Nicola Polloni (KU Leuven):

“Hylomorphic Crossroads: Ibn Daud, Gundissalinus, and the Font of Life”.

16:35-17:00

Michelle Hamilton (University of Minnesota): “On Earth as it is in the Heavens:
Angels and Peoples in Ibn Daud's Thought”.

Session III. Ibn Daud's Historiography and Political Theology

17: 15. Introduction: David Soto (Universidad de Murcia)

17:20-17:45

José Antonio Fernández (Universidad de Murcia): "Mitologemas de Sefarad en el Sefer ha-Qabbalah"

17:45-18:10

Antonio Rivera (Universidad Complutense de Madrid): "Ibn Daud: judaísmo y teología política medieval"

Final remarks and farewell